
Title: CROWN Report 2023

Author: Cinderella

Rannulf the Scribe wished us to speak with Jervis the Scribe.

"Greetings" I said to Jervis when I found him.

He replied "Hail and well met! I'm Jervis. Are ye the ones Rannulf sent over?"

"Yes Rannulf sent me?" I said

"Oh, excellent. Well, His Royal Highness demands a fact-finding report of how his kingdom prospers at the start of a new year. To this end we've been tasked with gathering information."

"What information would that be?" I asked the scribe.

Aye... It's going to be a task. You must speak to folks around Britannia and guage how they fare.
Some of them may not wish to speak to you.
You might have restort to a bit of bribery."

"Bribery?" I asked Jervis
"Oh... Don't give me that look! Ask them what they need will do the trick...
After you're done, write up your findings and turn them in to the mailbox at the Circle of Stones"

I asked him where the Circle of Stones is located.

Jervis then told me the location of the Standing Stones, which is located just up from the Britain Moongate.

"Jervis what do I need to ask these citizens?"

"Just ask them what they need before talking to you. hopefully shouldn't be too much. When you get the answer record their response for your report"

After I got the necessary information I set out to the locations.

=====
I first went to the Rangers Guild outside of Skara Brae.

I spoke with Moll. She gladly guards the woodland realms of Britannia. She says the Rangers remain faithful, but perhaps a little recognition by the Crown would be welcome.

=====
Next I went to speak with Hamlyn the Miner at Minoc Mines.

He wasn't of good fare, for his back is on fire for swinging his pickaxe all day.

He didn't mean anything about being so cross. It's been a difficult day.

He needed a bottle of ale to get him to sharing tales.

He said to tell the crown that the wealth of Mount

Kendall seems unending, unlike the health of those who work to free her riches.

poor fella... cries for his aching back

=====

And off to the Lycaeum to speak with Elyes the Mage.

He says the mages fare just fine without interference from the mainland. He seems to think that these constant inspections under the guise of fact-finding makes him think the Crown doesn't trust the Council of Mages.

=====

Next I am headed to Britain Farms to speak with Stell the Farmer.

She thought I was being a little bit forward for asking if she needing anything.

She said that the yield of crops wasn't waht they wanted this year.
The onions rotted from within.

she asked if I could spare some coin, which I gladly helped her out.

She said that they fare well, but just. life is hard when the crops don't come.

I bid her farewell and off to Vesper Docks I went.

I found Rolf the sailor at the docks.

He asked if I came to check up on him.
I asked him how he fare.

"There's an overdue ship outa Jhelom that hasn't reported in for a week now..."

he then told me that the ship was last spotted headed North towards Dragon Island. He asked that if I could find survivors on Dragon Island

Off to dragons Island I went.

At the Island I found Wilson the Shipwreck Survivor.
He said that he needed rescuing. A way off this island.

He said his ship was set upon by Pirates just past North Jhelom.

He wished for me to tell His Highness that his waters be teeming with pirates.

=====

thus I submit my report

Britain farmers need all the help that they can get. The Miners need a little bit of ale after a hard days at work. Mages want to feel that they can be trusted by the Crown. And the Rangers need a little bit of recognition of their guarding of the woodlands.
And Sailors are warning of troubles in the waters near Jhelom.